

VICTORY IS WON BY WAUSAU TEAM

Visitors Too Much For Rhinelander, Highs In Friday's Basket Ball Game

The Rhinelander high school basketball team met defeat at the hands of the Wausau high school, Friday evening, at the Armory by a score of 27 to 13. While the local aggregation played well it again lacked the great necessity of a good basketball team—the art of shooting baskets. Wausau, the same as all the other surrounding cities, played a rough game which the home boys were unable to cope with.

During the first few minutes of play the teams seemed evenly matched although Wausau played a more steady game. Soon Wausau took the lead on the score board and kept it until the end. The latter part of the last half was a grand exhibition of basketball on the part of both teams. Fenelon and McDermott were easily the stars of the locals.

The Line Up

Wausau	Rhinelander
Foster	C. Swedberg
Piper	L. F. Reed
Turner	R. F. Remo
G. Ramsdell	L. G. Fenelon
Guy Ramsdell	R. G. McDermott
Brown	Sub. A. McDermott

Schneller of Wausau acted as referee to the entire satisfaction of all who attended.

In the preliminary game played by freshmen and sophomores, the latter won by a very large score.

STRUCK BY TRAIN

Louis Bell, Indian, Fatally Hurt On Logging Railway.

Louis Bell, an Indian who lives at Bearsden, near Minocqua, was struck by a logging train on the Yawkey-Bissell railway near Hixson, yesterday, and fatally injured. He was brought to Minocqua hospital. He is suffering from concussion of the brain and according to reports received here this noon his death is momentarily expected.

Bell had been to Minocqua doing trading and was on his way home when the accident occurred.

MAP NOT ACCURATE

State maps are being distributed by the state railway commission. The maps have some value as a wall ornament but are not accurate. In just a casual glance over it we find that the town and village of Minocqua have been placed in the county of Vilas instead of Oneida. Klink postoffice in the town of Hewitt has been changed to "Kalinke" by the commission and important cities like Poniakowski, Staat and Moon have been left off the map entirely, while the village of Merrill is given prominence. 'Twas always thus.—Wausau Pilot.

NO GAME

Through some misunderstanding, no game will be played tomorrow night by the local high school basketball team. A game was supposed to have been arranged with Ironwood, Mich., to be played in that city, but this proved not to be the case. This was a great disappointment to the team as they wished to avenge their defeat on the gridiron last fall where they lost to the miners by a score of 11 to 0. However the boys will continue to practice for future scheduled games.

SCOTT IS EXCUSED

J. M. Scott of Tripoli returned yesterday from Superior where he had been called on the jury in federal court. By presenting a plausible excuse to Judge K. M. Landis he was relieved from service. Mr. Scott is logging this winter and an extended absence from his work would mean a financial loss to him.

R. C. Dayton of the Wisconsin Veneer Company, left this week on a three weeks business trip to the southern and eastern states.

WHERE IS INGERSOLL?

Former Barber Is Wanted For Deserting His Family

Oneida county authorities are looking for Robt. Ingersoll, a former barber of this city, who is wanted for deserting his family. Descriptions of the man have been sent to police throughout the northwest. Little is known at this time concerning Ingersoll's whereabouts. To Sheriff Crofoot Mrs. Ingersoll wrote that her husband was known to have been in Billings, Mont., a short time ago. He is also said to have been in Michigan and Omaha, Neb., within a few days previous to his appearance in Billings. Considering the long distance between these points Ingersoll must be traveling via airship.

In Rhinelander, Ingersoll has worked at both Forsyth's and Weideman's barber shops. By his friends he was regarded as a "good fellow" and his disappearance has caused much surprise and comment.

FORMS NO PART OF CITY SYSTEM

Oneida Training School Is Strictly a County Institution For Teachers

The teachers of the Training School are being asked frequently by residents of this city whether the Training School is a part of the grades or of the high school. These questions indicate that many people do not understand the relation of the Training School to the city and to the county.

The Training School is a COUNTY institution and has no connection whatever with the system of this or any other city. In a letter written by State Superintendent Cary to the Principal of the Training School, occurs this passage: "It is not the purpose or design of the law that a County Training School should be a part of any other system of schools, as they are intended to be special schools for the instruction of pupils in the branches suitable for the training of country teachers, including the art of teaching."

This shows clearly and authoritatively that the Training School is NOT a part of the system of schools of this city. It is supported by the state and county jointly. It is governed by a board, one of whose members is the County Superintendent, the other two members are chosen by the county board. Neither the board of education of this city nor the City Superintendent have any authority whatever over the Training School any more than has any other citizen of the county.

Non-residents who wish to attend the city schools must pay tuition, but any resident of the county, who has the necessary qualifications, may attend the Training School FREE OF ALL CHARGES, if he wishes to fit himself for teaching.

To repeat: The Training School is a COUNTY institution, governed by a COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION and supervised by the STATE SUPERINTENDENT and is in no way a part of the system of Rhinelander schools. It is glad to receive and train to become efficient rural teachers, any resident of the city who is qualified to enter. The same statement is, however, no truer of this city, than it is of any other part of the county of Oneida, whether city, village, hamlet or country. If the student has finished the common schools he can gain the diploma of the school in not less than two years; if he is a graduate of a high school—and most of our students are—he can complete our course in one year.

CHINESE NEW YEAR

The small colony of Celestials in this city observed the Chinese New Year last Sunday. There was chicken and an extra supply of wine on the menu at Ye Pe Wu's laundry.

BUSY TIME FOR THE FIRE BOYS

Department Responds to Three Alarms Friday Night—Blaze On Brown Street

Only the prompt and efficient service of the fire department prevented what might have resulted in a serious blaze on Brown Street, Friday evening.

Fire broke out in the partition between the buildings occupied by the Oneida Plumbing Company and Leader Store. By diligent work the firemen succeeded in checking the flames before any heavy loss was incurred. The damage is estimated at between two and three hundred dollars.

While handling a hose, Ole Larson of No. 2 company, was slightly injured by slipping on the icy ground. The accident did not detain him from duty.

Previous to the Brown Street fire the department responded to two alarms, one from the Witt home, 530 Thayer Street, and the second from the residence of A. Boufflou, Alban and Thayer Streets. The former alarm proved to be a burning chimney, which caused no damage. At the Boufflou house fire did no little destruction to the building and contents. A defective chimney was responsible for the blaze.

The department has seldom before had such a busy evening. In less than three hours it answered that many calls.

Sunday afternoon a chimney fire at Gilligan's hall brought out No. 1 company.

CONDUCTOR IS HURT

Ed. Nixon, a Soo freight conductor of this city, hurt his arm while at work on the Knox spur, Tuesday afternoon. The injury is painful but not serious.

KEEP WATERWAYS CLEAR

New Commission May Look After The Minocqua Lakes

Jas. Nevin, superintendent of Wisconsin fish hatcheries, while at Minocqua last week, said that he thought nothing could be done in regard to getting a state appropriation for the improvement of the Minocqua Lakes. He added, however, that a commissioner may be appointed this winter by the legislature to see that the waterways were kept in condition to allow all boats to pass freely.

As a summer resort town Mr. Nevin expressed great faith in the future of Minocqua. The Times says:

The most essential thing Mr. Nevin declared was to see that the summer visitors were not over charged. A uniform price should be established and the citizens should see that the prices were adhered to. One party with a few exorbitant charges could drive away more trade than the whole town could get here, thus all must suffer for the greed of a few.

HOLD SHAFER ON A GRAVE CHARGE

Bus Man Is Alleged To Have Stabbed Louis Evener At Northwestern Depot

As the result of a fight at the Northwestern depot in this city, Saturday night, Wm. Shafer, proprietor of the Fuller Hotel bus line, must answer to the charge of assault with intent to kill. Shafer is alleged to have stabbed Louis Evener, a young man employed as driver of the Hotel Commercial bus. Evener's wounds are said not to be serious. Shafer was arraigned in municipal court Monday morning and his hearing adjourned one week to await the outcome of Evener's injuries. Bail was fixed at $1000 and the amount readily furnished. The bonds men are B. L. Horr, Chris. Roepke, Otto Krantz and Wm. Gilley.

The trouble between Shafer and Evener is reported to have been the culmination of a heated controversy over bus passengers which had existed for several days. While awaiting for the Northwestern night passenger trains, Saturday, the quarrel was resumed and Evener is alleged to have struck Shafer several times, inflicting scalp wounds. After this attack Shafer, it is asserted, drew his pocket knife and plunged the blade into his aggressor's body.

A small cut was inflicted near the left hip. The injured man was given immediate surgical attention and it is now announced that he has about fully recovered. He is said to have but little pain and is able to eat three substantial meals each day without any inconvenience.

Witnesses claim that after the fracas Shafer hurried to his bus and drove to the barn on Stevens Street where he was taken in custody by Patrolman O'Malley. At the jail it was found that the injuries about his head were such as to require the services of a physician.

The case has attracted more than ordinary interest and it is expected that the hearing next Monday will be largely attended by the curious.

FEW WEAR CARNATIONS

McKinley's Anniversary Scarcely Noticed In This City

It is to be regretted that Carnation Day, last Sunday, was allowed to pass unobserved by the majority of people in Rhinelander. A very limited number of the flowers were worn here, not enough to command attention. In many of the neighboring cities, including Merrill, Wausau and Stevens Point the occasion was fittingly remembered by the citizens. In these cities the florists reported large sales of carnations, McKinley's favorite flower.

Carnation Day, marks the anniversary of the birth of the third martyred president. In a proclamation the Carnation League of America requested that all loyal Americans wear the flower on that day.

IS VICE-PRES. OF STATE FAIRS

Arthur Taylor Is Honored at Annual Association Meeting at Madison

At the fourth annual meeting of the Wisconsin Fair Association at Madison last Wednesday and Thursday, Arthur Taylor, secretary of the Oneida County Agricultural Society, was elected president of the organization. M. Severson, of Tomah, was re-elected secretary and treasurer, which offices he has held since the formation of the association.

Mr. Taylor says that fifty-six out of seventy-two Wisconsin fairs were represented at the meeting. The business of the various associations was gone over and it was found that with few exceptions, the fairs showed steady growth. It was voted to make a recommendation to the legislature in the form of a bill for larger state appropriations for fairs. The legislative committee of which Mr. Wilcox of De Pere is chairman, was authorized to draft the bill, which when presented before the association was adopted by a rising vote. The measure, if enacted by the legislature, will give a little more liberal aid to fairs in the northern part of the state.

The next annual meeting of the association will be held in Milwaukee, January, 1912.

NEW MEAT FIRM

P. McDermott Buys Interests of C. Smith in City Market

The firm of Gleason & Smith, of the City Meat Market on Stevens St., has ceased to exist and will hereafter be known as Gleason & McDermott. Pat McDermott on Monday purchased the interests of Chas. Smith and with Mr. Gleason will devote his time to the business.

The new partner is one of the old residents of the city and needs no introduction. While for him the meat business is a new experience it is safe to declare that he will be successful. Mr. Gleason, the old member of the firm, has for the greater share of his life conducted a meat market and has a reputation for square dealing.

RELATIVES NOT KNOWN

After an illness of three days, Jas. Montgomery of Postville, died in St. Mary's Hospital, Monday. He was fifty-four years of age and nothing is known of his friends or relatives. He left sufficient money to defray expenses of burial. Rev. Clemans of the M. E. church officiated at the funeral, Wednesday afternoon.

"OLD CURLEY" IS GONE.

"Curley," the faithful old spaniel that has for many years been a familiar figure in canine society of this city, has taken his final nap. "Curley" was a good scout and is perhaps by this time a shining light in dog heaven. For fourteen years he trotted about the streets of Rhinelander, a friend to everyone. He was owned jointly by Wm. Usher and Mike Wheeler and to the credit of these gentlemen be it said that they gave him a respectable burial.

LEASES NEW QUARTERS

P. J. Koelzer has leased the building on 125 S. Stevens Street to serve as a warehouse for his feed store. Early last fall Mr. Koelzer contemplated retiring from business and gave up his warehouse on Anderson Street near the C. & N. W. right of way. He will use his new building until better accommodations can be secured.

J. J. Koller, a former resident of Middle Inlet, who holds a position with the Granger Land Co. at Armstrong Creek, in Forest county, was last week appointed chairman of the town of Carwell in that county to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Charles Ross of Carour, who held that office for a number of years.—Marquette Eagle-Star.

GETS BIG PROMOTION

Jerry O'Connor Is Special Roadmaster Of Soo Line.

Comfortably reclining in the soft cushions of a luxuriant private car, leisurely chewing the end of a fat Havana, Jerry O'Connor, the Soo line's new special roadmaster, passed through the city this morning on his first tour of inspection over the Wisconsin division. With him on the trip is F. W. Curtis, superintendent.

Mr. O'Connor's promotion from road master to his present high position was made a few days ago. His jurisdiction extends over the entire Soo system, which with the recently acquired Chicago division, embraces over 4000 miles of steel.

The rise of Mr. O'Connor from the ranks of the common section hand has been little short of remarkable. He at one time handled the crew bar and shovel on the Soo section in this city, soon became boss of the gang, and through his own diligence and aptitude was advanced to the roadmaster's job. Now comes his late boost.

During his short stay in Rhinelander today, Mr. O'Connor was greeted by several of his old friends who happened to be at the depot. Congratulations on his good fortune were showered upon him. Minneapolis will continue to be his headquarters.

TO COUNTY JAIL FOR NINETY DAYS

Jury Finds McCormick, "Bad Man," Guilty of Assault And Battery Charge

Charged with assault and battery G. McCormick, the "bad man," whose real name is said to be Gravel, was found guilty by a jury of six men in municipal court last Friday morning.

McCormick was arrested Thursday forenoon last after he had assaulted the bar keeper and made things generally interesting in Robert Ollhoff's saloon, 114 S. Brown Street. At the city jail he attacked Chief Straub as he was being placed in a cell and it was necessary for the officer to use his club with no gentle force. The prisoner refused to plead guilty, as it was expected he would do, but demanded a jury trial. From the opening of the case until the time the jury brought in its verdict exactly 45 minutes elapsed. Judge Walker gave McCormick ninety days.

McCormick is positively the toughest character that ever roamed the jungles of northern Wisconsin. He has been arrested twice in this city before and each time it required nearly a regiment to drag him to the jail. His most enjoyable pastime is fighting and he is never happier than when inflicting punishment on some luckless fellow being. He usually makes hamburger steak of his victims, although he occasionally lets them off with a dozen dainty kicks or slight taps on the wrist. The only man that could ever whip him died when he was a baby, leaving "Mac" the undisputed champion.

After his conviction the prisoner in a most sarcastic manner thanked the jury for its "fairness."

"SUNNY JIM" IN CITY

James Gee, known throughout his territory as "Sunny Jim," one of the oldest traveling men who comes to Rhinelander, was in the city, Wednesday in the interests of his house, the Woolson Spice Company of Toledo. Mr. Gee has been coming here ever since the town was young. He is one of the most popular "drummers" who ever carried a grip and his always radiant nature has earned for him the appropriate nick name "Sunny Jim."

Washburn
The cases against nine Washburn saloon keepers, who were arrested last summer on the charge of selling liquor to Indians, have been thrown out of court by the United States District Attorney. Recently one of the cases was brought to trial and the defendant acquitted. From the result of this trial the U. S. attorney concluded that there was small evidence on which to prosecute the other saloon men.

Hurley
Rumor has it that a bill will be introduced in the legislature to wipe Iron county from the map and to annex the northern part of the county, which has the richest territory, to Ashland county and to create a new county out of the remaining part together with slices of Price and Sawyer counties, with Park Falls as the county seat. Such a move, if attempted, would not be relished by the citizens of Iron county and they would undoubtedly make a hard fight to prevent the passage of the bill.

Tomahawk
There is a new industry in this city known as the C. Soap Company, the stock holders of which are Andrew Oelhafer, W. T. Bradley, John W. and Wm. Oelhafer and George Roberts. The concern's product is called Frazzle Soap, a preparation for which there promises to be a large sale. It equals and in many respects is superior to various well known brands of toilet soap now on the market.

According to figures in a recent federal census report, Delta county has 1,059 farms under cultivation. Only two other counties in the Upper peninsula have a greater number of farms. Menominee, with 1,664 and Chippewa, with 1,251. Other counties in the peninsula are credited with farms as follows: Alger 255; Baraga 401; Dickinson 214; Gogebic 185; Luce 196; Mackinac 457; Marquette 615; Ontonagon 345; Schoolcraft 417.

Billman is in the Dane County jail and will be tried before Judge Sanborn at the next session of federal court.

Unusually warm winter weather last week interfered more or less severely with logging operations throughout this section. Both the ice and snow roads were damaged to such an extent that hauling became difficult. In some places work was entirely suspended and a few camps broke up. The cold change in the weather Sunday has resumed conditions to normal again.

Iron River
At the annual meeting of the Bayfield County Fair Association the advisability of erecting a new general exhibit hall at the fair grounds was discussed and the members agreed that such structure was necessary. The growth of the fair in the last two years has been phenomenal and has required many substantial improvements to buildings and grounds. Last year a new stock pavilion was constructed.

Ironwood
Stanley J. Rodebaugh, sentenced from Gogebic county for burglary in 1891 and in 1899 transferred to asylum for the criminally insane at Iowa, has entered a plea to be released from that institution on the ground that he is sane. The Holtzmay case, says the Ironwood Times, has evidently encouraged Rodebaugh in his action.

Washburn
The Bayfield county board has declared the office of county treasurer vacant and named Al Froeth of this city to fill the vacancy. Special Accountant H. P. Axelberg of this city, who was appointed to go over the books of the county officers, in his report alleges that there was a shortage of $1,874.41, and this caused the board to take the above action. The former treasurer, Henry O. Liem, says he will not abide by the accountant's figures, but that he will have an expert accountant employed to locate the fault.

POOR PHONE SERVICE

The people of Three Lakes are complaining of the poor telephone service which that village has over the long distance wire with the surrounding towns. The line has been out of order for days at a time and this even in the most pleasant of weather. Three Lakes business men are indignant over the matter and will investigate to ascertain where the fault exists.

MOB SEEKS LIFE OF A MURDERER

Dr. Schiek Witnesses a Wild Scene at Mellen—Man Escapes Lynching

Dr. I. E. Schiek returned from a business trip to Mellen a few days ago, and brought with him the story of a horrible double murder committed in that town.

John Adams, a camp bookkeeper from Superior, and John Gordon, a foreman, were the victims. Martin Miller, a young Hungarian, is in the Ashland jail charged with the crime. Dr. Schiek, who was in Mellen when the killing took place, says that the deed was the result of a drunken row in one of the saloons. A friend of Miller's became involved in an altercation with a couple of woodsmen and a free-for-all fight ensued. In the mix-up, Miller grabbed a heavy stake and commenced using it in a fiendish style. Adams and Gordon received broken skulls and died almost instantly.

After the arrest of Miller there was strong desire on the part of the Mellen people to lynch him. Dr. Schiek states that he has never before seen such an indignant and wrathful mob of citizens as that which filled the streets following the crime. The scene resembled a hot blooded out break in the south when the whites clamored for the life of some negro criminal. The doctor declares that he could scarcely believe himself to be in a peaceful northern Wisconsin town. Only the secret removal of the prisoner to Ashland saved him from the fury of the crowd.

VALUE OF ADVERTISING

An exchange wisely says that the advertisements in a newspaper, if the merchant means what he says are a very valuable part of the paper to its readers. Through them the people learn where they can secure bargains and thus save themselves money. For this reason the merchant who has bargains to offer and who always does by his customers just as he advertises that he will do, is the man whose "ads" are read with interest, and who is sought when the readers wish to buy. The prosperous merchant, when he has bargains to offer, advertises the fact to the people because he wishes them to come and see him; and then he does just as he advertised to do. People are always looking for bargains.

SOMETHING TO LAUGH AT

Next to a kiss a laugh is the most popular thing in the world. The supply of kisses is limited, being largely controlled by a fair but capricious trust. The supply of laughs, however, is practically unlimited so long as you don't get too grumpy to look for them. One reason for the remarkable success of The Chicago Record-Herald is its daily recognition of the value of kindly, wholesome fun. The "Alternating Currents" column of S. E. Kiser, the humorist and poet, is one of the brightest things in American journalism. There is always a smile or a good laugh in Ralph Wilder's cartoons, bringing a cheery greeting as you pick up the paper each morning.

But it is in The Sunday-Record-Herald that one finds the most chuckles. The colored comic section is full of laughter for young and old, and these amusing illustrations are free from the vulgarity and mischievous suggestions that have barred so many comic sections from refined homes. Then there is always a lot of high-class humor in the Sunday Magazine of The Record-Herald, led by Sewell Ford's inimitable Shorty McCabe stories. The delectable Shorty and his red-headed rival, Torchy, have become so popular that one or the other now appears in a funny yarn every Sunday throughout the year. So long as Shorty and Torchy are on deck there will be something worth living for. The Record-Herald has the right idea. Clean humor doubles the welcome of a good newspaper.

Senator Hustling has introduced in the State Senate a guaranty bank reserve bill to protect depositors in state banks. It is generally believed that some bill will be passed along this line at the present session of the legislature.

Congressman Morse wins out. The president appoints his candidate, Justin Means, as postmaster of Merrill and throws down F. W. Kubasta who was appointed as a recess candidate in the summer contrary to the wishes of Mr. Morse. Surely, Mr. Kubasta's term as postmaster is of short duration.

EXPLOSION KILLS MANY

In an explosion of twenty-five tons of dynamite at the Central Railroad of New Jersey passenger ferry slip in New York yesterday, at least 25 people were killed and more than 150 injured.

PROGRESSIVES FEAR BILL

The ghost of the Ballinger business has arisen in the house of representatives in the form of a bill, fathered by Frank Mondell, Wyoming, arch-opponent of conservatism, and urged on by the influence of the White House and all supporters of the administration.

This is the bill suggested by Mr. Ballinger providing for the reference of the Cunningham coal claims to a court in the District of Columbia. The bill has quietly emerged from committee without hearing, and a poll of the house has been going on for several days, to determine whether there is strength enough in the Special Privilege element of that body to get the legislation through.

The Progressives are on the alert, and many members not classed as Progressives believe the bill is rotten, and will oppose it. These members feel that this Mondell bill is drawn not merely in the interest of securing the Alaska coal deposits to the Guggenheims, but that its passage would be a continuing evil to the ordinary citizen of the nation.—Milwaukee Journal.

TAFT'S NEW TREATY

President Taft now comes forward with a treaty with Canada which in many industries is practically free trade.

Although there has been little comment, the stalwart papers are already accusing the progressives of dishonesty in their previous tariff battle and announcing ahead that they will not support the treaty. The terms of this treaty are a great contrast with the Aldrich-Payne tariff bill which the President so vigorously upheld.

Some think this is a move on the part of the President to rehabilitate his standing with the voters and destroy the popularity of the progressives. However, we have no fear that President Taft intends to do anything to hurt privilege. His whole attitude has been to boost for it since he became president.

So far as the progressives are concerned, they should vote as they honestly believe and not play politics. In the end actions and expressions along the lines of honest conviction will win with the masses. Honesty wins in the end.

IT MEANS ECONOMY

Mitchell Republican: In the first year of Sioux City's government by the commission plan, according to a preliminary report, the city's debt has been decreased more than $100,000. In the six years preceding, under the old council system indebtedness was retired to the sum of $250,000, or approximately $40, a year. Thus it is apparent that the city has paid more than twice as much on its debts in the past year as it did under the old plan. Of course there probably has been some change in conditions and some of these may have helped to bring about economy. But so large an increase in the savings cannot be accounted for without giving the business like form of the commission plan of government a large part of the credit. Indeed there is every reason to presume that this is what brought about the improved finances, for that is precisely the record made by the commission plan wherever tried. This paper does not recall a single instance when a city's financial conditions were not bettered by this system. Here in South Dakota it was demonstrated by Sioux Falls, where a payment on the city's enormous debt was made for the first time in fifteen years, during the first year under the commission.

TO AMEND RECALL

It is an interesting fact that the state legislator from Eau Claire, the only city in the state which has a commission form of government comes forward with an amendment to the present law asking for the initiative and referendum. Mr. Gilbertson also asks that the salaries of the mayor and the other two members of the commission be cut a thousand dollars a year.

The new bill calls for a recall of any of these officers upon a petition of 25 per cent. of the qualified electors. The name of the members to be placed upon the ballot unless he requests otherwise in writing.

The provision for the initiative requires a petition of 25 per cent. in case the proposed ordinance is to be submitted to popular vote at an election special but in case of submission at a regular election, a 10 per cent. petition will suffice. In both cases the alternative is given to the commission to pass the measure within twenty days, in which case no election shall be held. Special elections are not to be held oftener than once in six months.

The bill gives cities the right to engage a nonresident as mayor, the idea being to provide opportunity for expert outside service. The bill retains the provision of the present law for non-partisan elections by majority vote.

"My work on this bill," declares Judge Gilbertson, "shows the necessity of municipal home rule. Some cities, I find, wish things in the commission plan which other cities do not desire, and vice versa. It would be better if every city had the power, subject to certain reasonable restrictions, to formulate and adopt its own plan of government."

As we stated in last week's issue the Commission Form of City Government is in its formative stage and no doubt will be greatly improved before the close of the present legislature.

ROBT. M. BASHFORD DEAD

Robert M. Bashford, aged 65, former justice of the supreme court, Wisconsin, died at his home in Madison Sunday night from dilation of the heart. A wife and one child survive him.

For many years Judge Bashford was a member of the law faculty in the University of Wisconsin.

Judge Bashford was born in Wisconsin. His early years were uneventful and he graduated from the University of Wisconsin law school in 1871. After graduation he did not take up the practice of law immediately, but entered the newspaper business in the employ of the Madison Democrat. He was private secretary to Gov. Taylor, whose daughter he later married. In 1876 he began practicing law and during a course of years was identified with different firms. He became Madison's city attorney in 1881 and held that position until 1886. In 1890 he became mayor. During this time he championed a city house cleaning which resulted in the removal of several public officials. From 1891 to 1895 he was state senator. In 1894 he was a delegate to the Democratic national convention in Chicago. Upon the death of J. B. Cassoday he was appointed to the supreme court bench by Gov. Davidson. At the election of the following year he was defeated for a place in the high court by John Barnes.

WHY DID BALLINGER ESCAPE?

To some acidulous citizens it seems a pity that President Taft did not hand Ballinger a slice of that too, too copious rebuke administered to Commander Sims. The only thing Sims gave away was a little of his country's good will to a crowd of British banqueters, yet behold the call down he got! My child, if you ever have to give away anything of your country's, make it coal land.

Without deciding the question in regard to Sims, every observer must see the force of the contrast between the rebuke of that officer and the incredible palliative with which Mr. Taft keeps in his cabinet an official condemned by all those members of the Investigating Committee who were not put on it for the purpose of supporting the Administration; recently condemned in the Senate in speeches by Senators Fletcher and Purcell; fully exposed in his weekly by Senator La Follette; utterly discredited by public opinion and by the independent press; so entirely lacking the confidence of the House of Representatives that if the matter could come to a vote in that chamber, a large number of the members belonging to Mr. Ballinger's own party would go on record with a vote of no confidence.—Collier's Weekly.

Every feature is bright and fresh and the new comers are all clever artists in their respective lines.

The organization is accompanied by a high-class solo concert band and a superb orchestra. The band will head the Kooontown parade, which will take place at noon.

Prices have been placed at 35 and 50 cents. Seats can now be secured at usual place.

TOM MARSHALL'S SPITTOON

Superior Court Clerk's Rebuke of the Famous but Uncleanly Orator of Kentucky.

Tom Marshall, the great Kentucky orator, was also a great masticator of tobacco, and one of the most uncleanly of men in the disposition of the salivary "juice," an abundant deposit of which usually decorated his ample shirt-bosom. The contrary of Marshall in this particular was Return J. Meigs, clerk of the national supreme court, whose person and office were always models of neatness and cleanliness. One day Marshall entered the clerk's office, as usual masticating a great quid of "dogleg," and before he had finished his business found it necessary to unload. "Where do you keep your spittoon, Mr. Meigs?" asked the advocate, after a fruitless search the desired utensil. "I do not keep one," said the clerk. "Where do you spit?" "I do not spit," "I mean, where do I spit?—I chew, Mr. Meigs." "Generally, you spit on your shirt bosom, Mr. Marshall." The great advocate left the office, discharged his cargo of tobacco, and returning, resumed his examination of the records with complete serenity.

Not Nice French.

In the dining-room of a hotel at Nice, on a huge placard posted over the mantelpiece, you can read the following: "Our English visitors are kindly requested to address the waiters and servants in English, as their French is not generally understood."

LET RANTZ PLAN IT

If YOU ARE THINKING OF BUILDING A HOME why not get plans? Remember it is NOT what you pay for plans that is the REAL consideration, but it is what you GET. Why? Because upon your plans and ESPECIALLY the details of construction depends UTTERLY the PROPER OR IMPROPER expenditure of all your building funds. THINK IT OVER.

We develop your own ideas into a practical set of plans and specifications, which can be executed to the smallest detail into a building that can be built within your means and to your ENTIRE satisfaction.

Designs and estimates cheerfully submitted to parties interested.

CLIMBS TO TOP OF THE WORLD

Merl LaVoy, Formerly of This City, Is With The Parker-Brown Expedition

Merl LaVoy of Seattle, Wash., who in the early days made his home in Rhinelander, was official photographer with the Parker-Brown expedition which "sleuthed" on Mt. McKinley to ascertain proof whether or not Dr. Cook reached the summit of that peak. Mr. LaVoy, who is a cousin of Frank Easton of this city, in an interview to the Seattle Times, declares that no evidence of Dr. Cook having reached the summit could be found. The Times has two full pages of photographs obtained by LaVoy while with the expedition.

In exploring the mountain, many hair breadth experiences were encountered by LaVoy. At one time he dropped into a crevasse hundreds of feet deep but it so happened that it was filled with water from the thawing snow to a point within fifteen feet of the top of the glacier. He was carrying a heavy pack of dried beans, and these supported him in the water, until his associates rescued him with a long rope.

The party crossed thousands of crevasses which had been bridged with snow. At the head of a glacier there was reached a chasm so deep that it was impossible to hear a stone drop at the bottom. At this point the attempt to ascend Mt. McKinley had to be abandoned.

After discovering and photographing the peak which Cook described as being the top of Mt. McKinley and getting duplicates of several other pictures published in Cook's book, the party crossed Chulitana glacier and climbed Explorer's peak, which has an elevation of 9000 feet above the sea level.

What's in a Book.

For the student every book is now a book of reference. What student of continental history reads Gibbon, or Gregorovius, or Symonds right through? He is not even exhorted to do so. He secured a handbook, which refers him to certain chapters in a certain volume of each, and that satisfies him and the ordinary university tutor. Green, Bright, Hallam, Macaulay, Gairdner are similarly pecked at. Yet all these men had definite ideas and comprehensive views of the periods of which they were writing—views which it took them one or more volumes to expound, and which we are not going to appreciate by reading a dozen pages every fifth chapter.

Discoveries at Venice. Some very interesting discoveries have been made in the course of excavation work around the island of Lido, at Venice, where a number of ancient pieces of artillery have been found beneath six feet of mud. The cannon are all in a state of excellent preservation, though it is clear, from their construction, that they must date back to the period almost immediately after the discovery of gun powder, and it is believed that they will prove of very great artistic and historic value.

TO BUILD BIG RESORT

Milwaukee Men Plan Summer Hotel At Flambeau Lakes

L. E. Ludlow, of Milwaukee, who was in the city Saturday, is arranging to build a large summer resort at one of the pretty lakes near Lac du Flambeau. The resort will consist of a large new hotel structure equipped with all modern conveniences, and a dozen neat cottages.
Mr. Ludlow says that he will invest about $30,000 in the enterprise, the money to be furnished by himself and sportsmen of Milwaukee and Chicago.
To a New North reporter Mr. Ludlow stated that much of the material to be used in the construction of the buildings will be purchased in Rhinelander. He will also try to engage carpenters and other workmen from this city. It is his plan to commence building early in the spring, as soon as weather conditions permit, and the work will be pushed rapidly.
Mr. Ludlow has been coming to the northern Wisconsin lakes for the last ten years and firmly believes that there is not a more ideal spot for sportsmen in the entire country.
He has not the least doubt but what the new resort will prove a paying business.

FIVE DAY LIMIT

There is a new postoffice ruling that will eventually do away with the "return in five days" clause on envelopes. The new rule is that when the name of the sender appears on the envelope and no time limit is given, the letter will be returned to the sender in five days instead of being held thirty, as was the former rule.
If the sender specifies, however, that he wishes a letter held ten, fifteen or thirty days, the postoffice will do as directed.

LETTER FROM JOHN GREENWOOD

In a letter to the New North from Woodstock, Ore., John Greenwood, a former resident, writes that he is receiving clerk in the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company freight depot and that he and his family like the country. Woodstock is a city five miles from Portland. Mr. Greenwood lately purchased a fine lot there and is building a home thereon. It is five years since the Greenwood family moved to the West. He sends his regards to all old friends in Rhinelander.

NO MORE RABBIT PIE

The season for killing rabbits in Oneida and nearby counties came to a close Tuesday. Rabbit pot pie will now cease to be on the menu until the season again opens next fall. Hundreds of rabbits were slaughtered in the county during the last few months, especially by youthful hunters.
Some of the farmers are talking of having the rabbit law removed as they claim the little animals cause damage to growing vegetation.

ELK PARTY A SUCCESS

The Elks' party given Friday night at Gilligan's hall was well attended about thirty-five couples being present. The music furnished by the Military orchestra was good. A good time was reported by all in attendance.

What To Do —FOR— Sickly Children

Letters from Mothers

"I wish I could induce every mother, who has a delicate, sickly child, to try your delicious Cod Liver and Iron Tonic VINOL. It restored our little daughter to health and strength after everything else had failed."—Mrs. C. W. STUMP, Canton, Ohio.
Mrs. F. P. Skonnard, of Minneapolis, Minn., writes, "I want to recommend VINOL to every mother who has a weak or sickly child.
My little boy was sickly, pale, and had no appetite for two years. I tried different medicines and doctors without benefit, but thanks to VINOL he is a well and healthy boy to-day."
C. Allen, of New Bedford, Mass., writes, "My two puny children gained rapidly in flesh and strength in a very short time after taking VINOL."
We positively know VINOL will build up little ones and make them healthy, strong and robust. Try one bottle, and if you are not satisfied, we will return your money.

TWO SWEAR THEY SAW DAWSON LAD

Chris. Anderson and August Zacharias Each Make Startling Affidavits

Since there has been much comment on the failure of the prosecution in the recent Dawson matter and a great deal of adverse criticism of those who started the same, we, the undersigned have decided to place some of the evidence on which the action was based before the public.
We are willing to let the public judge as to the reasonableness of our grounds for suspecting that someone was to blame. We make no comment except to say that several other affiants saw Lester Dawson in the city at different times during the next four days after the warrant for his arrest was issued and the fact that such warrant had been issued became generally known.

Dawson lives on a farm about one mile east from the home of this affiant; that on the 15th day of April, 1910 this affiant saw the said Lester Dawson walking past his home and going in the direction of the farm upon which said Dawson lives. That this affiant at that time understood that there was a warrant out for the arrest of said Dawson and that he went to the telephone and called up B. F. Jilison, the sheriff of said county, and told the said Jilison that said Dawson was at that time going past his place on his way towards his own home and asked said Jilison if he wanted the said Dawson, and received a reply from said Jil-son that he did want him. Later on in the afternoon of said day this affiant saw the said Dawson walking back from his said farm to the city of Rhinelander.

August Zacharias, being sworn says that he is a resident of the city of Lester Dawson.

That on the 18th day of April, 1910, at about four o'clock in the afternoon, affiant saw said Dawson come from the fair grounds near said city, and go into the house of his sister, who lives opposite of said fair grounds.

Affiant further says, that while said Dawson was still in the house of his sister as aforesaid, affiant saw a team drive up to said house and in the buggy of said team he saw the Chief of Police of the City of Rhinelander, and another man, whom affiant believes was the Under-Sheriff

That said team stopped a few min-turned about and drove back toward

Woman's Power Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

OH, YOU HEN!

Henry Knapp Will Start a Large Poultry Farm

H. E. Knapp informs the New North that he will embark in the poultry business. He has one of the finest locations near the city for such an enterprise and has had considerable experience in the work. He has now on his farm three hundred and fifty laying hens. At the present prices of eggs Henry thinks that he may dispose of Billy, his famous horse, and purchase an auto in the spring.

Strictly fresh eggs are commanding all the way from 35 to 45 cents per dozen. Mr. Knapp has her that lay. He has the world famed barred Plymouth Rocks and Rhode Island Reds.

PERINIER MAKES REPLY TO REV. CLARK'S ARTICLE

Prominent Social Democrat States his Reasons For Disagreeing
With Clergyman In Regard To Sparg's Action

An open letter to Grant V. Clark, Rev. Grant V. Clark, Dear Sir:

In The New North of Jan. 12, I read your letter objecting to John Spargo's reason for declining to serve as member of the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

As a Social Democrat, I am glad to see you manifest an interest in this question—a question on which there is sure to be such a diversity of opinion. To explain how and why I arrive at a different conclusion than yourself in this matter, is the object of this letter. To make clear my position, I shall review briefly as possible the historical process upon which the Socialists base their hope for the ultimate brotherhood of mankind, or rather such phases of that process as most directly apply to this subject.

The history of the human race has ever, thus far, expressed itself in the struggle of economic class against economic class; the wealth producing class against the appropriating class, (of course there were, and are, sub-classes, but these are in the nature of things to be classified as component parts of the two general opposing classes mentioned, for wealth to be appropriated, it had first to be produced, and the manner of enforcing this production varied from brute force under slavery and feudalism to the method under capitalism—Legal ownership of the means of production and through that ownership the resulting power to dictate the hours of work, working conditions, etc., but the main weapon of the appropriators has ever been the ignorance of the workers, regarding their economic power as a class. This ignorance has allowed the appropriators to play one part of the working class against the other, thus the legions of Rome held the slaves in bondage for the common masters of both (soldiers and slaves) the military forces of the federal barons played the same part in holding the serfs in subjection for their common masters, the nobility.

Each stage of society has been more complex and somewhat less brutal than the preceding stage, until we come to our present capitalist era, where we see the military recruited from the working class, awing into submission other members of that same working class when striking against the unbearable oppression of their common industrial masters.

Another weapon which has proved itself of great service to the appropriators in keeping the military and other subservient forces in the proper psychological attitude in this class struggle is the fact that man's one great desire is to live and the disposition to justify his manner of obtaining the means for that living in the sight of his conscience. Even a highwayman thus justifies himself in his own opinion. We might state the applying law thus: The manner in which a man, a group or a class obtain their living conditions, their mental attitude, thus the southern slave holder fought to uphold his "right" to the product of his slaves' toil and was unquestionable, as a rule, sincere in his action, the confederate soldier recruited from the "poor white trash" of the south manifested great bitterness toward the yankees who wished to "confiscate our niggers" although this same soldier was probably unable to raise funds sufficient for the purchase of a pair of hand-cuffs to secure "his" property.

This mental attitude of the "poor white" soldier of the confederacy now seems to us ridiculous, but let us consider the regular soldier and militarism of today. He lives continually in an atmosphere of "discipline" which means absolute unquestioning obedience to orders from this "superior" officers—appointees of a government in which the regular soldier has no part but to obey orders; a government owned, financed and controlled by the capitalist owning class. He is required to and expected to "protect" property and property interests, if necessary at the expense of human interest or human life itself.

This is a matter of course with him, not a matter of reason nor judgment. There is no room for reason nor for human intelligence in any being which is thoroughly trained to "obey without question."

There's not to make reply,

There's not to reason why,

There's but to do and die!!!

Now, as to the outdoor life, the nature study, athletics, the teaching of respect for parents, consideration for the aged, crippled and unfortunate, drilling as members of an organized body—all these I concede to constitute commendable training. But from the Boy Scout movement as it stands to-day, has been omitted the leavening principle without which it is a reactionary blighting thing—the principle of cooperation in obedience, on which principle is based the sentiment of brotherhood for humanity, may as well tear from its sight the bandages of prejudice, ignorance and superstition placed there by the individualistic capitalist system and awake to the fact that we are moving to the next stage of social evolution, the stage of cooperation in government. I am fully aware that it is objected that the masses are not capable of governing themselves, that mankind is by nature degenerated, but I maintain that that statement is a blasphemy against nature and nature's God. Man was created in the image of his maker and corrupted by environment, Satan's most effective instrument) and that environment must be changed to prepare the coming generation for this change is the legitimate function of all educational institutions, the Boy Scout movement included.

In fact we are already well on our way to this next stage of society, we have already socialized our methods of production, we have socialized our schools, libraries, highways, postoffices, army, navy, etc. We have yet to take but two short steps, viz: to take under government ownership (National, State and Municipal as collective) the balance of the socially used means of production and then the most important step of all: Socialize the ownership of the government and produce for use not profit.

Now, I am not one to claim that this is absolutely the only possible step to be taken next. But it is the only forward step; in the other direction lies feudalism or slavery. One thing is certain, we cannot go on under the present process of concentration of wealth into the hands of a continually diminishing few (which is: an essential result of the present profit system of production and distribution and still leave the wealth in the hands of the present owners.

The next logical step is the socialization of the ownership of industries and government—which demands an organized populace drilled in the democratic administration of government in its three branches: Law-making, Law-abiding and Law-enforcing.

This is well within the province of the Boy Scout movement and proper guidance. That boys may be taught to thus govern themselves has been demonstrated in the George Junior Republic and in some of our public schools. But the distinction must be made between true-cooperation and true brotherhood on the one hand and on the other the elevation of the coster over the son of the duke which is merely exchanging places with the individuals and not brotherhood at all.

You quote from Mr. Spargo: "We cannot ignore the class-conflict which characterizes the life of the nation to-day." And you comment thus: "In a sense this is true, but this class conflict ought not to be encouraged, if the spirit of comradeship is worth anything it ought to include all men and I say, it is most unfortunate for any boy, be he a son of a laborer or a capitalist, to be arrogantly taught that he belongs to any class."

When our Lord Jesus Christ answered the rich man's query "What must I do to be saved?" with the words "Give all that thou hast to the poor," he adopted a method of procedure directly opposite to that put forth by yourself. You, after admitting the existence of economic classes and the consequent class struggle, propose to ignore that existence and would refuse to teach the boy this self-evident truth (which he must soon discover for himself.) Our Lord struck immediately at the cause of this conflict by requiring his followers to first remove themselves from the then economically useless rich class in order that amongst his followers there should be no diver-ging of economic interests, the main cause of the class conflict. This is exactly the ground the socialist take on this question—remove the causes and effect will eventually disappear.

Only that Christ lived in a comparatively individualistic age—the age of the simple individually used tool and that we are living in the era of socially used tools of great complexity, which condition begets a highly complex organization of society and this society in order to be saved (economically at least), must be socially saved by social action.

To the working class we teach: (Your immediate interest lies in abolishing the individual ownership, of the socially used tools (capital) to which conclusion they must inevitably come as their general education is furthered, and to the capitalist (especially the small capitalist already reduced by competition to the ranks of the working class) we say: "You may join our movement when you realize your economic doom, and stand ready to pass over your privately owned capital to be collectively owned and do all in your power to assist society in coming to this logical conclusion."

When the Boy Scout movement ceases to inculcate into the minds of our future citizens ideas based on untruth, ideas of false patriotism, (for true patriotism places love of fatherland above love of father-land) of military ideals and military glory, thus giving us a reactionary movement and teaches facts and their resultant effects, drilling the coming generation in the democracy of the coming social state, thus becoming a progressive educational institution, then we will all be able to concur in the comment with which you close your letter, "To make our boys self-reliant, courageous, kind, considerate and resourceful, and to develop among them the spirit of true brotherhood, it seems to me there ought to be no serious opposition to such a program from any quarter."

That's What Every One Says Who Tries

Black Silk Stove Polish

DON'T imagine for a moment that all brands of stove polish are the same. Don't get the idea that to keep a nice glossy shine on your stove you must black it every few days. It's not a question of oft-repeated application.

It's a question of the stove polish to use. Black Silk Stove Polish is so much better than other stove polishes that there is absolutely no comparison—if it is a class all by itself.

It makes a brilliant glossy shine that don't rub or dust off. It adheres to the iron—becomes a part of the stove. It makes old stoves look like new and lasts four times as long as any other shine.

Get a can and give it a trial. Try it on your parlor stove, your cook stove, or your gas range. If you do not find it the best stove polish you ever used, your dealer is authorized to refund your money. Black Silk Stove Polish has been made by the same formula and sold under one name for 25 years.

Here is what some of the ladies write us: "I saw your advertisement but was unable to secure the polish here. I sent to you for a can and found Black Silk Stove Polish so much better than any I had ever used that I asked my hardware dealer to order a supply. He did so, and is now selling nearly everyone in the place your wonderful polish. I had no idea there could be such a difference in stove polishes."

I tried the sample box of Black Silk Stove Polish and like it so well that I want to black all the other stoves in the house. Enclosed find 50 cents. Send polish for that amount by return mail. Our hardware merchant does not keep it. I was visiting friends in Chicago and they told me Black Silk Stove Polish on their stoves. It made the stoves I never saw, and after blacking the polish did not rub or dust off. It is way ahead of any polish I have ever used. I received the Black Silk Stove Polish and found it all you claim and the best I ever used."

Ask Your Dealer

For Black Silk Stove Polish and refuse a counterfeit brand. Costs you no more than the ordinary kind, so why make the best. Made in liquid or paste form.
